GIFT AID DECLARATION

If I have ticked the box headed 'Gift Aid?' I confirm that I am a UK Income or Capital Gains taxpayer. I have read this statement and want the charity named above to reclaim tax on the donation detailed below, given on the date shown. I understand that if I pay less Income Tax / or Capital Gains tax in the current tax year than the amount of Gift Aid claimed on all of my donations it is my responsibility to pay any difference. I understand the charity will reclaim 25p of tax on every £1 that I have given.

Guide for Gift Aid

Make sure to use your home address

We can't claim from your work address

Complete your details in full

For us to claim Gift Aid, the form must be completed in the sponsors' handwriting

What can Gift Aid do?

If you are a UK tax payer then by Gift Aiding your donation you can turn £10 into £12.50 at no extra cost to yourself

Give your donation a little boost, if you can, and it will make a big difference

Connected People

If you are connected to the participant you cannot Gift Aid your sponsorship. A connected person is:

A husband, wife or civil partner. A brother, sister, parent or grandchild. The husband, wife or civil partner of a relative. A company under control of the donor, or under control of connected person

Any questions?

If you have any queries then they can be answered by checking the HMRC website and searching for Gift Aid
